Preparation of Plan: The Personnel Officer, designee, or a person or agency employed for that purpose, shall ascertain and record the duties, responsibilities and requirements of all positions in the competitive service and, after consulting with appointing authorities and Department Heads affected, shall recommend a classification plan for such positions. The classification plan shall consist of classes of positions in the competitive service defined by class specifications, including the title. The classification plan shall be so developed and maintained so that all positions substantially similar with respect to duties, responsibilities, authority and character of work are included within the same class. The classification plan shall be adopted and may be amended from time to time by resolution of the City Council.
2. Allocation of Positions: Following the adoption of the classification plan, the Personnel Officer shall allocate every position in the competitive service to one of the classes established by the plan.
3. New Classifications/Positions: Notice will be provided to the applicable bargaining unit when a new classification is created. The notice will advise the unit of the salary range assignment and the opportunity to meet and confer regarding the salary range assignment before adoption of the new classification. When a new classification/position is created, before the same may be filled, the Appointing Authority shall notify the Personnel Officer, and, except as otherwise provided by Ordinance or these Rules, no person shall be appointed or employed to fill any such position until the classification plan has been amended and an appropriate classification specification has been established for such position.
4. Reclassification: Positions, the duties of which have changed materially so as to necessitate reclassification, shall be allocated by the Personnel Officer to a more appropriate class, whether new or already created. The applicable bargaining unit will be advised of the reclassification action. Reclassification shall not be used as a mean to circumvent the procedures related to demotions and promotions as outlined in these rules.

RULE IV. COMPENSATION

1. Compensation Policy: The City Council shall, by resolution or Memoranda of Understanding, establish wage rates or salary schedules for each classification. The City Manager is responsible for recommending such rates or schedules to the City Council and may use data from a variety of sources when developing such recommendations.
2. Five Step Salary Range Plan: Regular employees in the competitive service, except for management employees, shall be placed within a five step salary range as follows:
 - a. The first step shall be the minimum rate and shall normally be the hiring rate for the class. In cases where it is difficult to secure qualified personnel, or if a person of unusual qualifications is engaged, appointment may be made by the Appointing Authority at the second or third step. Initial appointments above step three must be authorized by Council action.
 - b. The second step is an incentive advancement to encourage an employee. An employee may be advanced to the second step by the Appointing Authority after the completion of one year of actual, continuous employment, and satisfactory service. There is no guarantee of advancement to this step after one year of employment. Advancement to this step must be earned.
 - c. The third step represents the middle value of the salary range and is the rate at which a fully qualified, experienced and ordinarily conscientious employee may expect to be paid after a reasonable period of satisfactory service. The Appointing Authority may advance an employee to the third step after the completion of not less than one year of actual, continuous employment, and satisfactory service at the second step of the salary range. There is no guarantee of advancement to this step after one year of employment. Advancement to this step must be earned.
 - d. The fourth step is for an employee whose work is above standard for the classification/position. The Appointing Authority may advance an employee to the fourth step at the completion of not less than one year of actual and continuous employment at the third step and upon satisfactory evidence that the employee's work is above standard.
 - e. The fifth step is for an employee whose work is consistently above standard service. The Appointing Authority may advance an employee to the fifth step after completion of not less than one year of actual and continuous employment at the fourth step upon satisfactory evidence that the employee's work has been consistently above standard.

- f. In any case where, by reason of unusual circumstances, rigid adherence to the foregoing principles relating to salary adjustments would cause a manifest injustice, the Appointing Authority may make a salary adjustment based upon the unique qualifications/experience of the employee and the circumstances.
 - g. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section, when an employee is promoted or reclassified from one class to another having a higher overlapping salary range, or when a given classification is assigned to a new salary range, such employee shall be adjusted to the minimum of the new range if the increase is at least 5% or to the next higher rate than that attained in the former position, whichever is higher, but thereafter shall be governed by this Section; provided, however, that such adjustment made by assigning a given classification to a new salary range shall not alter the anniversary date or the eligibility of the employee for consideration for a regular increase under this Section unless the employee is required to complete a probationary period in the new classification.
 - h. Rates of compensation provided for by this Section or Memorandum of Understanding, unless otherwise shown, are fixed on the basis of dollars per month for full time service in full-time positions. If any position provided for is by appropriate language specified or indicated as being for less than full time service, the rate of compensation provided for such position shall be proportionately reduced.
 - i. A permanent employee may fill a position in a higher classification on a temporary basis. While filling the position on a temporary basis the employee shall be paid the minimum rate of the new pay range of the position being filled temporarily or the next higher rate above his/her regular salary, whichever is higher. Nothing in this section will give the employee a right to the higher classification position.
3. Management Employees: The first through third steps are considered entry level dependent upon experience and qualifications. The fourth step is considered the mid-range representing a highly qualified and experienced level. The remaining steps require sustained above standard or better performance for advancement to and maintenance of these levels.
4. Temporary Employees: Temporary employees shall be appointed and compensated in accordance with administrative directives issued by the City Manager for actual hours worked. An employee with temporary status may be released without cause or advance notice and has no appeal rights upon termination. Temporary employees are only paid for hours worked.
5. Performance Evaluations: It is the responsibility of the immediate supervisor to observe and evaluate the job performance of assigned staff as well as to provide appropriate orientation to the job. Failure of the immediate supervisor to conduct an evaluation, could subject the supervisor to discipline. The purpose of the performance evaluation is to encourage open communication between the employee and immediate supervisor regarding expectations and performance, identify opportunities for professional development and establish goals and objectives for future progress and development.

- a. All newly hired and promoted full-time employees will be evaluated after 6 months of employment. After successful completion of a probationary period, the performance evaluation is conducted on an annual basis, or more frequently, if appropriate. The performance evaluation should be conducted prior to the employee's anniversary date. The anniversary date is the date of a personnel action, such as promotion, demotion, transfer to a different class, or reclassification.

RULE V. APPLICATIONS AND APPLICANTS

1. Job Announcements: All notices for vacant positions in the competitive service shall be publicized by posting announcements on the City Web page and by such other methods as the Personnel Officer deems advisable. The announcements shall specify the title and pay of the class for which the examination is announced; the nature of the work to be performed; preparation desirable for the performance of the work of the class; the manner of making application; and other pertinent information.

 - a. Applications must be completed in full. It is the responsibility of applicants to demonstrate that they meet the minimum requirements for the position.  - d. The application deadline may be extended by the Personnel/Risk Management Division as circumstances warrant.

applicant does not possess sufficient qualifications required for the position. If an application is rejected for failure to meet the minimum qualifications, the applicant can appeal by contacting the Personnel/Risk Management Division within 3 working days of the date of notice of rejection. The Personnel Officer, or designee, shall make the final decision regarding any appeal received. An application may be rejected or the applicant may be disqualified from the examination if the application is not complete; if the application indicates facts showing that the applicant is unable to perform the job applied for; if the applicant uses illegal drugs, or currently uses drugs or alcohol habitually and excessively; if the applicant has been convicted of a crime that is related to the job applied for and future job performance; if the applicant has made any false statement of a material fact or practiced any deception or fraud in an application. Whenever an application is rejected, the Personnel Officer shall mail or electronically serve notice of the rejection to the applicant. If Applicant is a qualified individual with a disability and identifies the need to be accommodated for such disability during the application process or thereafter, the City will engage in the interactive process and provide reasonable accommodations. However, the Applicant must engage in the interactive process in good faith with the City or such application may be rejected.

 - a. No person shall be assigned, appointed, promoted or demoted to a position in any department in which such person's relative already holds a position when such employment would result in any of the following: (1) a regular and reoccurring supervisor-subordinate relationship; or (2) both employees having the same immediate supervisor. For the purpose of this Section, a supervisor-subordinate relationship shall be defined as one in which one person exercises the right to control, direct, reward or discipline another person by virtue of the duties and responsibilities assigned to his or her position. For purposes of this section a distinction is made regarding the length of the supervisor-subordinate relationship to note that an exception is made for short term acting assignments of a few shifts.
 - b. For purposes of this Section, "relative" means spouse, registered domestic partner, child/step, parent/step, grandparent, grandchild, brother/step, sister/step, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, parent-in-law, brother-in-law or sister-in-law and legal dependents of the employee.
 - c. If a City employee marries another person employed by the City within the same department, both employees shall be allowed to retain their respective positions provided that a supervisory relationship does not exist at the time of marriage between these two positions. During the period of employment, no supervisor subordinate relationship shall exist between the two employees.

RULE VIII. METHOD OF FILLING VACANCIES

1. Types of Appointment: All vacancies in the competitive service shall be filled by transfer, demotion, re-employment, reinstatement or from eligibles certified by the Personnel Officer from an appropriate employment list, if available. In the absence of persons eligible for appointment in these ways, interim appointments may be made in accordance with the Personnel Ordinance and these Rules.
2. Certification of Eligibles: If the Appointing Authority does not consider it in the City's best interest to fill the vacancy by reinstatement, transfer, or demotion, or if it is not possible to fill the vacancy by re-employment, the Appointing Authority has the ability to fill the position from an appropriate employment list, provided eligibles are available. When the Appointing Authority requests a vacancy filled by appointment from a promotional employment list or from an open employment list, the Personnel Officer has discretion to certify sufficient numbers of names to fill the vacancies. Whenever there are fewer than three (3) names of individuals willing to accept appointment on a promotional employment list or an open employment list, the Appointing Authority may make an appointment from Whenever possible, at least the top three (3) available candidates should be certified and referred to the Appointing Authority for consideration in filling of the vacancy. The specific number of candidates to be certified shall be determined by the Personnel/Risk Management Division.

 - b. In addition to, or in lieu of, a certification of names from an open or promotional eligible list, the Appointing Authority may request certification of any or all eligible candidates on rehire, reinstatement, and/or transfer lists.
