Title VI

YOUR RIGHTS UNDER TITLE VI

TITLE VI COMPLIANCE

WHAT IS TITLE VI

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 protects against discrimination based on race, color or national origin in programs or activities that receive federal assistance.

Specifically, “No person in the United States shall on the ground of race, color or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.” (42 U.S.C Sec. 2000d)

Title VI protections were enhanced with two Presidential Executive Orders, #12898 and #13166, respectively.

Executive Order #12898 ensures federal programs, policies and activities’ human health or environmental effects do not discriminate in regard to race, color or national origin.

Executive Order #13166 ensures Limited English Proficiency persons are given meaningful and consistent access to federal programs and activities.

Discrimination protection expanded to include age, sex and disability with the following non-discrimination statutes: Section 162 (a) of the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1973 (23 U.S.C. 324) (sex), Age Discrimination Act of 1975 (age), and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973/Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (disability)
